

Policy Statement on Impartiality

In order to provide trusted and independent certification activities that provide confidence, the Management of MYC, place the utmost importance on the principles of impartiality, conflict of interest and confidentiality when undertaking certification activities.

Mudra Yog Certification

- Provides certification services in an open, independent and impartial manner potential new applicants. All applicants are treated equitably, no application is rejected based on caste, colour, sex, financial or membership of any association or group.
- Make certification decision based on objective evidence and conformity through a competent examination process in which decision are not influenced by other interests or by other means and
- Understands the importance of impartiality when carrying out certification activities, thereby managing any conflict of interest and ensuring the objectivity of its certification activities.

The management, employee, outsourced experts, examiners and technical experts undertaking certification activities for Mudra Yog Certification are required to declare and comply with the impartiality requirements at all time.

For Mudra Yog Certification

Manish Prasad

CEO

Dt: 23/09/2017